John COLLINS Jr

Documentation

	INS Jr Died near Hams Fork Wyom.	2 - +
age Date:	Fact:	Document or Source of Information:
31 4:1864	John Collins Ir died about 20 miles	1. "History of John Collins Sr." by Sophia Collins Beck
1	down trail from Hams Fork, Wyoming on the way toward Salt Lake City, Utah	1. "History of John Collins Sr." by Sophia Collins Beck Halladay as recorded in Dau of Pioneers book "Our Pioneer Heritage" Vol. 16 pp 468-469-470.
	on the Wall toward salt lake dit. letale	" Our Pinneer Heritage" VAI 11 no 468-469-470.
	On the way loward sall bake city, with	var i interijage von 18 pp 9 88 - 19 1101
		468 Vo// COUR PIONEER HERITAGE
	C C	468 Vo// C Our Pioneer Heritage
	No and	John Collins, born in 1802 in Collingbourne, Willshire, Eng-
	Incorrect info, &	land, was the eldest son of Charles and Joyce Collins. As a young
	2.000	man he was taught to work in the timber and to farm and tend sheep. When grown to manhood he married Priscilla Shefford who was also born in Collingbourne. This union was blessed with nine sons and two daughters. In March 1862, a young man by the name of Samuel Liddiard who was born in Oldbourne, Will-
I		shire, came to the Collins home seeking work. He was a brick-mason and was given the job of laying a brick floor in the Collins home. It was here he met Sarah, their daughter. Samuel was a devout member of the Latter-day Saint Church and he taught the Collins family this new religion while working in their home.
		Sarah became very interested in the religion as well as falling in love with Samuel. They were married on May 5, 1863, and on June 2, they bade goodbye to their families and friends and left Iline Berk Halladan lives at i	their native land to join the Saints in Utah. They sailed on the ship Amazon on June 4th under the direction of Captain William Bramel. After arriving in New York, they went on to Florence,
Name of the state	4.56 82601	Nebraska, where they were placed in the company directed by Daniel D. McArthur. Sarah and Samuel received several letters from her father between 1863 and 1866. We quote from one written June 16, 1863:
		GRAVES ALONG THE TRAIL 469
		Dear Sarah & Samuel, We received all your kind letters and was glad to hear you are still safe and in good spirits. We are getting over our anxiety a little, but for the first three or four days after you left, when I came home to have my meals, and come to set down and look on my right hand and see my dear Sarah's place, but no Sarah; and then look on my left and see your dear mother's face bathed in tears, it made me almost forget that I was a man and that you was not in the care of a protecting God, but its not so. You are in His care and as long as He sets at the helm, you are safe.
		2-7-80 RD104	AAI

My desires and prayers have been, ever since I knew of your intentions that the Lord would be pleased to make you a blessing to each other in all things that is good and virtuous but not in anything that is sinful and wicked. God has blessed you both with superior intellects in many things, to many of your fellows, and I hope you will use them in His honor and glory. O my dear children, for you seem as both to me, could I but see you once more, to comfort my troubled mind as you have done in times past, but you cannot but I pray that I may have the strength to bear all that may come upon me-but seek the Lord and He will never forsake thee. God only knows your brothers, some of them, may see you again if you should live, do not build on it. Please give my best respects to your brothers, Robert and Edward, and their partners. And also Mrs. Bramel. All your brothers and sisters-in-law and all your friends send their kind and best respects to you both, and accept the same from we, your father and mother, J & P Collins.

In 1866, John Collins, his wife Priscilla, their sons Tom, Joab and Aquilla with his wife Lemyra and their three small sons: George, Tom and Jonas: also their grandson, the son of their daughter Joyce, and Cook, started on their way to Zion. Bidding goodbye to their native town and friends, they left for London where they boarded the ship, American Congress, which sailed May 23rd. When they arrived in New York harbor July 4th, the passengers witnessed a wonderful display of fireworks. It was one year after the end of the Civil War, and there were many gunboats and battleships in the harbor for the celebration. The following day the passengers passed through Castle Gardens for inspection and arrived two days later at Albany, New York. They traveled by train to the outfitting station at Wyoming, Nebraska, where they prepared to cross the plains. John purchased two span of mules, two yoke of oxen and two wagons which they filled with provisions, a tent, plenty of bedding and many bolts of material for making clothes, and a pair of mules they named Jack and Kit.

After three weeks of preparation, the Collins family joined a company of Saints under the leadership of Daniel S. Rawlins,

470 Vol. /6 Our Pioneer Heritage

and began their journey on August 2nd. Many fell ill and about two weeks travel from Salt Lake City, John became ill with mountain fever and died September 21, 1866. He was buried that same evening on a little hill by Willow Creek known as Ham's Fork, Wyoming. John's wife Priscilla wanted her sons to turn back and return to England but the other members of the family refused. They traveled about twenty miles further where they stopped at the grave of John Jr. who had died two years earlier while he and his wife Mary were on their way to Utah. John, Ir. was the fifth child of John and Priscilla and was born in 1833, and was the first of the children to be baptized into the L.D.S. Church. When John, Jr. was thirty-one, he married Mary Goddard and they left for Utah soon after. He became ill and died in September 1864 within a few days' journey of Salt Lake City. Mary continued on and was cared for in Salt Lake City by her sister-in-law Sarah and her husband Samuel Liddiard. She later married a Mr. Davis and settled in Heber Valley. (Hailstone)

Priscilla and her family arrived in Salt Lake City October 1, 1866, and went on to Provo, Utah, where they traded the bolts of material which they had brought with them and also their oxen, for a house and lot on the corner of Seventh West and First North. Although John Collins was not privileged to reach the Valley of the Great Salt Lake, his efforts did help to build Zion.

—Sophia Collins Halladay

Sophia Collins Beck Halladay lives at: 835 West 300 North Provo, Utah 84601

Not I

John COLLINS Jr.

John Collins Jr died on Plains: Documentation

Fact:		Document or	Source of Information:
Husband on the	HEBER BIOGRAPHIES WILLIAM DAVIS William Davis was born January 2, 1830, in Wilsford, Wiltshire, England, on a farm and became an expert plowman, taking many prizes at plowing matches. He mar-	From New York they went to the village of Wyoming, which is on the Missouri River. There they were met by ox teams and wagons sent from Utah to bring the emigrants across the plains to Utah.	Source of Information: How Beautiful Upon the Mountains's story of William DAVIS. In tated that John Collins died is is not so: fiff Their ranch home was by the side of the road and anyone who needed help or food were always made welcome at the Davis ranch. William and Mary Goddard Colins Davis reared a family of four sons and they were both baptized Februar Stone (and protein birth place In 1864 they from Liverpool of in the latter particular. The data few days so of their househot Elizabeth's pare While there, the ill and died on the had to be in Livito leave without tending the fune a severe trial to would leave the The boat sailed on the Atlantic	they were both born and reared. He was baptized February 2, 1852, by Elder George Stone (and probably Elizabeth, too), near their birth place. In 1864 they made arrangements to sail from Liverpool on the sailing ship "Hudson," in the latter part of May, with their four children. The date of sailing was postponed a few days so the family, having disposed of their household goods, went to visit with Elizabeth's parents until the ship sailed. While there, their youngest child was taken ill and died on the 29th of May. The family had to be in Liverpool the next day, so had to leave without having the privilege of attending the funeral of their little one. It was	her little son Moroni, six years old, became seriously ill with dysentery. While William was doing all he could to help and comfort his wife, his little son called in a weak voice. "Daddy, daddy." William went to him and learned he wanted soup. He promised to get some and turned back to his wife, who was dying. He begged her to try to live and prayed to the Lord to spare her, but she passed away. He turned to go to his little boy and get some soup for him, but he was too late. The sisters came to do what they could. He had to bury them by the side of the road, without coffins and little time for ceremonies. When they finally arrived in Utah, their Uncle William Hail Stone, who had been	two daughters. William Davis acted as Presiding Elder at Elkhorn for some years, also the office of a High Priest, In 1866 and 1867 he took part in the Black Hawk War. He was called to pass through severe trials, but he kept jovial and cheerful as long as he lived and his faith in God never faltered.
	a severe trial to leave, but the sailing ship would leave them if they were not there. The boat sailed May 31, 1864. They were on the Atlantic ocean six weeks and a few days, landing at New York on July 19.		No! died on ship y buried @ sex.
	"Mary Godda. Husband on 1. What has the series of the ser	"Mary Goddard COLLINS—had lost he Husband on the plains in 1864." HEBER BIOGRAPHIES WILLIAM DAVIS William Davis was born January 2, 1830, in Wilsford, Wiltshire, England, on a farm and became an expert plowman, taking many prizes at plowing matches. He married Elizabeth Hope about 1854, near where they were both born and reared. He was baptized February 2, 1852, by Elder George Stone (and probably Elizabeth, too), near their birth place. In 1864 they made arrangements to sail from Liverpool on the sailing ship "Hudson," in the latter part of May, with their four children. The date of sailing was postponed a few days so the family, having disposed of their household goods, went to visit with Elizabeth's parents until the ship sailed. While there, their youngest child was taken ill and died on the 29th of May. The family had to be in Liverpool the next day, so had to leave without having the privilege of attending the funeral of their little one. It was a severe trial to leave, but the sailing ship would leave them if they were not there. The boat sailed May 31, 1864. They were on the Atlantic ocean six weeks and a few	WILLIAM DAVIS William Davis was born January 2, 1830, in Wilsford, Wiltshire, England, on a farm and became an expert plowman, taking many prizes at plowing matches. He married Elizabeth Hope about 1854, near where they were both born and reared. He was haptized February 2, 1852, by Elder George Stone (and probably Elizabeth, too), near their birth place. In 1864 they made arrangements to sail from Liverpool on the sailing ship "Hudson," in the latter part of May, with their four children. The date of sailing was postponed a few days so the family, having disposed of their household goods, went to visit with Elizabeth parents until the ship sailed. While there, their youngest child was taken ill and died on the 29th of May. The family had to be in Liverpool the next day, so had to leave without having the privilege of attending the funeral of their little one, it was a severe trial to leave, but the sailing ship would leave them if they were not there. The boat sailed May 31, 1864. They were on the Atlantic ocean six weeks and a few days, landing at New York on July 19. HEBER BIOGRAPHIES Willsom Davis was bord pland, on a farm and became an expert plowman, taking many prizes at plowing matches. He married Elizabeth and het was a severe trial to leave, but the sailing ship would leave them if they were not there. The boat sailed May 31, 1864. They were on the Atlantic ocean six weeks and a few days, landing at New York on July 19. MILLIAM DAVIS From New York they went to the village of Wyoming, which is on the Missouri River. There they were they were not the vas a few days after starting, Elizabeth and he they said could be law to Ultah. A few days after starting, Elizabeth and het little son Moroni, six years old, became seriously ill with dysentery. While William and could to help and confort his wife, his little son Moroni, six years old, became seriously ill with dysentery. While William and was doing all he could to the be visit with elizabeth and he the was too ultah. A few days after starting, Eliz

John COLLINS Jr Diednear Hams Fork Wwo Documentation

ge Date:	: COLLINS Jr Diednear Hams Fork, Wyoth : Fact:	Document or Source of Information:
	1864 John COLLINS Ir died west of	2. Letter from Lemira COLLINS to her Descendents: Original in poss of LaMyra Collins Hedman of SL Valley. (See accompanying Copy.)
	Mang Fort Manaine	Original in poss of LaMura Collins Hedman of SI Valley.
	1 Segreen and 1 Segreen	(See accommenting Care)
	x 500, 000	oce accompanying copy,
The same of the sa	nonpan
1	- IV
-	3
		A A 200
-
1
-
		2-7-80 RR C

John COLLINS Jr.

Documentation

C	John COLLINS Jr died on Plains: Documentation
Age	Date:	Fact:	Document or Source of Information:
31	1864	John COLLINS Jr died	d on Plains "A History of William DAVIS and Flizabeth
			Hope DAVIS" her their daughter Mary Ann Hope DAVIS," by their daughter Mary Ann Davis Moulton SMITH states that Mary Goddard and wife of William DAVIS
		no no	Mary Goddard, 2nd wife of William DAVIS, lost her husband on the plains in 1864, (see accompanying copy of this biography.) This history is in error about this =not fact.
			lost her husband on the plains in 1864,
			(see accompanying copy of this biography.)
			This history is in error about this = not fact now
		9	NE 16-02
-
-
			·
			2 7 2 2 2 2 4 4 5
, ,	'		2-7-80 R.R. Coreen MD		